

February 2022

Training teachers on AGROS project

As part of AGROS consortium, we believe that educating teachers on environmental awareness and protection will help them teach their students how to be more respectful towards the environment and be engaged in sustainable development activities! On 16/02/2022, CSI Cyprus trained 50 teachers on the content, aims and outputs of the AGROS project and provided them with ways to be actively involved in the next stages!

